

AutoCAD 2004- Plotting & Paperspace

CBT - Computer Based Training

What You Will Learn:

This CD provides an introduction to plotting techniques specific to Autodesk's AutoCAD 2004. You'll become familiar with

Topics

Topics covered on this CBT include:

- Explaining Paperspace
- Renaming and Deleting Layouts
- Creating New Layouts and Page Setup Dialogue Box Overview
- Default Options Settings
- Creating Viewports
- Scaling Viewports
- Viewports and No Plot Layers
- Locking Viewport Displays
- Freeze and Thaw Layers in Viewports
- Using the Template Wizard
- Format Templates for Design Center
- Using Design Center for Creating Layouts
- Using a Template File to Create Layouts
- Modelspace and Floating Modelspace Dimensions
- Creating Associative Dimensions to Link to Geometry
- Plotting From Modelspace
- Plotting From Paperspace
- Importing Page Setup Name
- Creating Plotter PC3 Files
- Plotting With Color Dependent Plot Styles
- Editing Existing Color Dependent Plot Styles
- Creating Color Dependent Plot Styles
- Explanation of Named Plot Styles
- Converting Plot Styles
- Drawing Web Format (DWF)

AutoCAD 2004 CBT Series

AutoCAD 2004 – Fundamentals

AutoCAD 2004 – Advanced

AutoCAD 2004 – Update

AutoCAD 2004 – Plotting & Paperspace

Prerequisites

Users should have a strong working knowledge of AutoCAD 2002 or AutoCAD 2004.

System Requirements

Our Computer Based Training (CBT) CD's do not require the Autodesk software be loaded on your machine. These are stand-alone lessons. Hardware requirements include:

- Microsoft Windows 98, 2000, XP or NT
- Microsoft Internet Explorer 5.5 or greater
- 1024x768 screen resolution & 32 bit true color display required
- 64 MB Ram minimum, 128 Ram recommended
- Intel Pentium II 233 MHz minimum
- 200 MB hard disk space required for installation
- CD-ROM drive and mouse (or pointing device) needed for navigation